Aspirations

Nitu aspires to become a civil servant. She wants to serve the nation and contribute towards the betterment of our society. The biggest motivation to pursue this dream comes from her father.

She mentions with glowing eyes how her father always brings something in the evening as a treat for her.

Learnings at school

Nitu finds Science, and English interesting. Her interest in Mathematics varies on the liking towards the teacher- this is what she says.

She also finds Origami fascinating, along with this she enjoys the video facilitated teaching. In a recent test, Nitu has scored exceptionally in concepts of fractions.

Student Feedback

The centre provides me with cake and milk. This is a diet that I am usually not able to get at home. I really like the combination. The teachers are very helpful and are even available for remedial lessons.
